GENERAL NOTES
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The cast ran through the entire show tonight for the first time, there were some missed chairs and missed lines, but nothing you wouldn't expect for a first run. They should all feel very proud of themselves for getting through the first full run. Now we fine tune and tweak.2. The runtime for tonight was 01:42:54, without bows / ployout. The time will condense a little once the scenes get smoother and the actors are more confident in their lines, but with ployout and bows, I imagine the runtime will sit at around this time.3. A percussionist has been hired!4. The ugly stick is being made and we should have it by Sunday!5. The building was vacated and secured by stage management by 10:30pm.
